

Supreme Factum / Henri A. Lafortune

Carries on business for over 35 years Supreme Factum carries on business for over 35 years in the field of legal document preparation and printing for appeals before various Canadian appellate courts and tribunals. As a first class specialist in court rules of procedure, the Company developed a unique expertise in file review, namely in conducting retrospective analyses in order to settle the contents of appeal records. Featuring a state-of-the-art technology and a highly qualified personnel, Supreme Factum acquired a top-notch reputation in the preparation of complex and voluminous records, while ensuring a quick, smooth and customized service meeting the highest quality standards.

Supreme Factum prides itself in being a leader in the preparation of factums and legal documents for the Supreme Court of Canada.